

3.7 DEALING WITH HEALTH-RELATED PROBLEMS

Original Date of Issue: 11/19/86

Revised:

Delaware County Community College recognizes its responsibility to be an informed and supportive educational resource agent in matters of health-related problems. The College will provide optimum health and safety conditions at Delaware County Community College consistent with equality of opportunity for education under Act 504 and individual civil rights mandates. The College recognizes its responsibility in matters that may create a public health problem.